

“Set The Table”

Many Christian MDRT members and their guests have gathered before the Annual Meeting for more than 40 years to provide a meaningful connection with God, enhance their MDRT experience and bring renewal and encouragement to members. That tradition continues June 1-3, 2017 at the St. Stephens Coptic Orthodox Retreat & Conference Center; Titusville, FL.

You will have time to focus on your beliefs and how to live out your faith every day. You will network with members who are there to develop their faith. Bring your Bible for our small group discussions. There will be plenty of time for prayer and worship. Our group meals build friendships that carry over to the MDRT meeting and can last a lifetime. We begin with dinner on Thursday and end with lunch on Saturday. Come, join fellow Christians of all denominations from around the world before the MDRT Annual Meeting.

Topic: “Created for Relationships”

K. Erik Thoennes, PhD

Erik Thoennes is amazed every day that he is forgiven in Christ. God has greatly blessed him with his godly wife Donna who has been his faithful ministry partner since they were married in 1989. They have two daughters Caroline (b. 2000) and Paige (b. 2002). He teaches theology at Biola University and is a pastor at Grace Evangelical Free Church in La Mirada California. He is committed to teaching theology so that he and his students love God and people more fully. He strives to make the necessary connections between the biblically based study of theology, obedience to Jesus, and fulfilling the Great Commission. He has taught theology and evangelism at Biola, Wheaton College and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

Some of the most enriching experiences of his life have been: meaningful local church involvement, hitchhiking around America, working with developmentally disabled adults and troubled youth, and playing American football in Europe after college. Erik’s primary goal in life is to love and glorify Christ more each day and help others to as well.

What can I expect? The Christian Study Group offers an extended time to focus on what you believe and how you live your faith out. We tend to concentrate on work and family issues and opportunities for developing our faith. The meeting is centered around teaching lead by our speaker Dr. Erik Thoennes. You will want to bring your Bible. There is also time for small group discussion and concentrated prayer. Joint meals provide an excellent time for getting to know other study group members. These friendships carry over into the MDRT meeting and into the rest of the year.

How often do you meet? We meet once a year just prior to the annual MDRT meeting. We begin with dinner on Thursday evening and go through lunch on Saturday.

Why should I attend? This group is unique because "it brings the power to change your life, not just improve your business. We go away knowing more of the depth of Gods love for us. It is what keeps drawing me back each year." Jude McDaniel

You have the opportunity to "fellowship with other Christians who may understand the highs and lows you face in your personal, professional and business life." Brent Welch
